Dear Sir,

Subject - CPDRS expresses profound grief over the catastrophic ammonia gas leak in Tamil Nadu

The Centre for Protection of Democratic Rights and Secularism (CPDRS) expresses its profound grief and deep concern over the catastrophic ammonia gas leak at the private seafood processing and export facility in Tiruvallur district, Tamil Nadu. This devastating incident has already claimed seven precious lives of innocent workers and left several dozens of others heavily hospitalized and fighting for survival.

While standing in absolute solidarity with the victims who are predominantly vulnerable migrant labourers and their families during this harrowing time CPDRS demands the government to provide adequate compensation to the families of the deceased.

The state administration must ensure that the absolute best possible medical treatment is provided to all the affected workers, particularly those who are currently in critical condition to save their precious lives.

While acknowledging that a high-level inquiry committee has been constituted to probe the mishap, CPDRS demands that immediately following the submission of the final report, swift and uncompromising legal action must be taken against those found responsible for this criminal negligence.

Finally, to prevent such a horrific tragedy in future the government must ensure all possible preventive and structural safety measures in such industries across the state.

Thanking you,
Yours sincerely
